APPROVE THE MESSAGE.

The people at large have voiced their approval of President Wilson's message to Congress. President Wilson gave most attention to the subject of "preparedness," making many excellent suggestions and some that are subject to doubt. Every question that concerns the domestic and foreign relations of the United States has received due consideration, and the message contains enough to keep the present Congress busy until the session ends.

ENGLISH FEELING.

The feeling of England against the United States was manifest in the House of Commons on Monday, when Lord Robert Cecil, Parliamentary Undersecretary, replying to queries regarding the Ford peace mission, parried the issue by saying: "Speaking for myself, I think it would be in the highest degree undignified for the Government of this country to send any intimation to a lot of ladies and gentlemen who, whatever their merits may be, are of no particular importance." It was also urged that the Americans be notified that their mission would be "irritating and unwelcome."

MAKES BAD BREAK.

The President's secretary, J. P. Tumulty, who according to our enemies is working harder for the Pope than for the President, has publicly denied that there is evidence that the Carranzistas were guilty of the cruel and shameful atrocities laid to their charge by Mexican and American Bishops, Dr. Francis Kelley and others. Now Dr. Kelley, and Dr. Tierney, of New York, hold affidavits in proof of their contentions, but these legal papers are not accepted as evidence in the absence of similar affidavits officially taken by government representatives. This causes the Sunday Visitor to suggest that Tumulty can not be priest-ridden (?) after all. The best that can be said for the secretary is that he made a bad break, and some think not without coercion.

CATHOLIC LITERATURE.

Certain it is, in the words of Father John Burke, "If we are to make ourselves truly Catholic in our character, our aims, our principles, then we must be readers of Catholic literature." Catholic books and periodicals are staple food for Catholic minds which without them inevitably show signs of weakness and disease. A large portion of the daily press, many of the popular magazines, plays presented everywhere, lectures and books lauded on all sides, even much work done along sociological lines with sincerest good will, all these are infected with the poison which broadly may be called materialism under its various aspects, whether we call it worldliness, humanitarianism, Socialism, pragmatism, New Thought, or perhaps the higher criticism. Against this formidable army is Catholic literature pitted. Our minds can not serve God and mammon; they can serve but one of the two, and their choice depends largely on whether they accept guidance from the church or from the world, from Catholic literature or from Ibsen, Maeterlinck, Bergson and Tagore.

Cardinal William O'Connell, of Boston, was fifty-six years old on Wednesday. The distinguished churchman was the recipient of many congratulatory messages, numbers coming from his Protestant admirers.

TAKE WHITE VEIL.

Hon. Frank T. Walsh, who is Chairman of the Federal Committee on Industrial Relations and owner of the Kansas City Post, with Mrs. Walsh and their two daughters, Misses Marie and Louise, passed through Louisville on Tuesday en route to Loretto, where the young women entered the mother house of the Sisters of Loretto, taking the white veil with a large class of postulants, of which they have been members. They were accompanied by Miss Marie Burnett and Miss Ella Coffey, also of Kansas City.

MASONIC TESTIMONY.

Reynold E. Blight, writing in the Bulletin of Los Angeles Consistory of Masons, pays this just tribute: "In certain circles it is popular to denounce bitterly the Roman Catholic church, and in the condemnation forget her splendid achievements and the consecrated service she has rendered to humanity. The long roll of patriots, statesmen, philanthropists, thinkers, heroes and saintly souls who have drawn their spiritual inspiration from her communion is sufficient proof of the real greatness of her religious teaching. Among the priests are those whose names have become synonymous with purity of life and unselfish effort for the betterment of humanity: Father Damien, Father Mathew, Father Junipero Serra, St. Francis of Assisi, Savonarola. Her countless institutions of learning, her manifold charities, the universality of her spiritual appeal, must awaken the admiration of all men. It must not be forgotten that at her altars the common people received their first training in democracy. Prince and pauper, peasant and merchant, kneel together, equal before God. During the long night of the Dark Ages the lamp of knowledge was kept burning in the monasteries. Tolerance knows that there are two sides to every question, and that a picture that shows only shadows is essentially false." Truth commends this to the prayerful perusal of members of anti-Catholic organizations.

PRICELESS MINIATURE.

A Queen's miniature, priceless in value, belongs to the University of Notre Dame. It is the miniature of Mary Queen of Scots, one of the most beautiful and tragic figures in the world's history. This miniature is the most jealously guarded of all the many invaluable art treasures in the great museum of the university, for while such masterpieces as Van Dyke's "Crucifixion," which is valued at $75,000, are open to the public, this little painting, the least known and perhaps one of the most beautiful art gems of its kind in America, is carefully locked away in a safety vault.

NETS NICE SUM.

From the recent bazaar for St. Mary's church in New Albany, conducted by the women of the congregation, a profit of $2,667 was realized.

The Weather and what the Weather-Man Says

—his forecast--be it fair weather or foul—

can be of no moment to you now. We have radically reduced the price on practically every piece of furniture--each article of homefurnishing in our very large and up-to-date stock

Seven long dreary months of dull business leaves us with an enormous amount of furniture on hand--leaves us very heavily overstocked in practically every department. This, and Rhodes-Burford's rigid policy that demands that each season be opened with nothing but the brightest, the newest, and the most up-to-date in furniture and homefurnishings, make it imperative that we cut prices--cut them so low that you will brave the worst kind of weather to take advantage of the saving.

You can furnish every room in your home for far less money than you could a week ago and still have left a large part of what you expected to spend. No matter how bad the weather may be, come in early. Look for the Yellow Tag. It means a big saving if you do.

Circassian Walnut Bedroom

Rocker $4.85

50 cents a Month

In no department of our large, up-to-date stock can we offer you a greater variety than in Bedroom Rockers. We have them in oak, quartered oak, circassian walnut, mahogany and in white enamel. And you'll find many a bargain among them.

The Rocker illustrated, is made of Circassian walnut, is highly finished in a dull rub, and you'll find it to be rigidly constructed. Cut from $6.25.

Save $1.40

Leather Rockers

Who ever heard of cutting the price on Leather Rocking Chairs right at Christmas time? We have.

We have any number of Leather Rockers on our floor right now--rockers that with "10-Store Buying Power" were bought to sell from $21.50 to as high as $70, on which we have placed reductions up to $16.50.

All are marked in plain figures. The illustration is used merely to call your attention to leather rockers, that Christmas is but 13 days off and that by buying it here you can

Save As High As $16.50

Genuine Quartered Oak China Cabinet $17.50

$1.25 a Month

Of all the different kinds of furniture, there can be nothing to the woman wanting a China Cabinet to complete her dining room that will make a more lasting Christmas gift. A gift that will be remembered long after Christmas has passed into a remembrance only.

The China Cabinet illustrated, is made of genuine quartered oak throughout, highly polished, has full-front and side glass doors, and adjustable, double-roofed shelves. Bought to sell for $25.

Save $7.50

$16.50

Fumed Oak Library Table $8.50

Here is another instance of "10-Store Buying Power." You would consider this Library Table cheap at $12.50, and yet we have to cut the price--seven long dreary months of dull business makes that imperative. Made of select quartered oak throughout; it has a 28x48-inch top; 3-inch square legs; an easy-sliding drawer and underslung book-shelf and it has a rich fumed oak finish. This, too, would make a very acceptable Christmas gift--it will be highly appreciated.

SAVE $8.00

See what you save--everything marked in plain figures--both original and cut prices. Select your Christmas Gift here and save money.

Lady's Writing

Desk $4.65

This one, Early English finish, has quartered oak drop lid; full width drawer and compartments for all sizes of stationery. It was bought to sell for $7.50.
